Notice to Masters of Whaleships and Merchant Vessels.

Your attention is called to the following Regulations of the Board of Health : SECTION 201. The Board of Health, and its Agents, may establish quarantine grounds in the several districts, as they may judge best.

Sgc. 292. The Board of Health may, from time to time, establish the quarantine to be performed, by all vessels arriving at any port of the Kingdom; and may make such quarantine regulations, as it shall jadge necessary for the health and safety of the inhabitants.

Sac. 293. The quarantine regulations so established, shall extend to all persons, and all goods and effects, arriving in such vessels, and to all persons who may visit or go on board of the same.

Sec. 294. Notice shall be given of such quarantine regulations, by publication in the manner provided in Section 284; and after such notice shall have been given, any person who shall violate any such quarantine regulations, shall be fined a sum not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars.

Sec. 295. Any vessel which shall refuse to submit to quarantine, or which shall leave the quarantine ground before the expiration of the quarantine imposed upon her, or which shall be the means of clandestinely introducing into this Kingdom any contagious disease, or any disease dangerous to the public health, shall be liable to seizure, confiscation and sale, for the benefit of the public treasury.

Sec. 296. The Board of Health, and its Agents, may at all times cause any vessel arriving, when such vessel, or the cargo thereof, shall in their opinion be foul, or infected, so as to endanger the public health, to be removed to the quarantine ground, and to be thoroughly purified at the expense of the owners, consignees, or persons in possession of the same; and they may also cause all persons arriving in, or going on board of any such infected vessel, or handling such infected cargo, to be removed to some place of safety, there to remain under their orders.

Sec. 297. If any master, seaman, or passenger, belonging to any vessel, on board of which any infection may then be, or may have lately been, or suspected to have been, or which may have been at, or which may have come from, any port where any infectious distemper prevailed, that may endanger the public health, shall refuse to make answer on oath to such questions as may be asked him, relating to such infection or distemper, by the Board of Health, or its Agents, such master, seaman, or passenger, so refusing, shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment at hard labor not exceeding twelve months, or both, in the discre tion of the court.

Sec. 298. All expenses incurred on account of any person, vessel or goods, under any quarantine regutions, shall be paid by such person, vessel, or owner of such vessel or goods respectively. The Roadstead of Honolulu is hereby designated as quarantine-ground. THEOD. C. HSUCK, Secretary Board of Health. Honoltze, October 24th, 1864.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH, ? Honolulu, Oct. 24th 1864. At a meeting of the Board of Health this day it was resolved : That the Collectors of Customs at Labaina, Hilo, Kawaihae, Kaawaloa, Koloa, and Waimea be instructed: that upon arrival of any whaleship direct from the cruising ground at their respective ports, they shall cause a strict enquiry to be made whether there is or has been, during the late voyage, sickness of a contagious nature on board of such ship, and in such case, or where there is any doubt remaining in the mind of the Collector, after due investigation, as to the infectious character of any disease that may have been on board, to order the vessel to report at once at Honolulu, and to forbid all communication with the shore.

THEO. C. HUECK, Secretary Board of Health.

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF SAN FRANCISCO .- We have on exhibition at our office, a bird's view of San Francisco, the commercial emporium par excellence of the Pacific coast, which is the most perfect thing of the kind we have ever seen. It measures 26 by 40 and was lithographed by Messrs. Robinson & Snow, of San Francisco, whose place of business is near Mesers. C. W. Brooks & Co., on Sansome St., corner of Washington. A key accompanies the plate, and contains over 10% references. The picture is so minutely perfect that a person at all acquainted with the localities can pick them out without the slightest difficulty or necessity of a key. The San Francisco our friends who would like a copy, through Mr. N. L. Ingols, to whose courtesy and to that of the publishers, we owe the fine specimen to which we have PHOTOGRAPHIC ROOMS .- Mr. Chase, since his return from California, has at considerable expense, improved his picture gallery, by the addition of a new room, with improved sky-light and apparatus, which enables him to take better pictures than have ever been obtainable in Honolulu, and of all sizes, from that of a breast-pin to a large size portrait. Some very superior specimens of his skill will be found displayed in his gallery. We observed also there a life size portrait of President Lincoln, painted by Mr. Perry, the artist, who is now on a visit to the volcano.

HARPER'S MONTHLY .- The October number is before us, and opens with an illustrated " Tour through Arizona," which will give one a most graphic description of the overland mail route. The article on "Privateering" shows that greater consternation and losses were created in the war of 1812 by American privateers than the rebel cruisers have during the rebellion. The terms of both the Magazine and the Weekly have been raised to roun DOLLARS a year, opened its fire on the rebels and accelerated their which with American and Hawaiian postages added, makes each periodical cost now So a year.

New Publication .- Professor Alexander, of Oahu College, has recently issued a pamphlet entitled "A Short Synopsis of Hawaiian Grammar," which, from its brief yet perspicuous elucidation of the grammatical construction of the language, will attract the attention of those interested in it. It was prepared chiefly for the use of the pupils in the College, but will serve as a help to any who are studying the vernacular. It can be procured at the Book store, at 25 cents per PATENT OFFICE REPORTS .- We are indebted to the Commissioner of Patents, of Washington, for copies of the Records of the Patent Office for 1860-2 and a copy of his report for 1863. Among the books received are several volumes of plates. Persons wishing to refer to them can do so at our office.

The auction sale of effects of His late Majesty takes place on Friday next, and will probably be one of the most extensive ever held in this city. Catalogues will be ready before the day of sale.

LAHAINA, Oct. 22, 1864.

MR. EDITOR :- Will you ascertain from the Board of Health, who are the agents for the Board on this Island. When the former board was in existence, we knew who they were; but up to the present time no persons have been appointed, to our knowledge. The Board of Health, I suppose, take good care of Honolulu, but forget that there is such a port as Lahaina. When it is known that whaleships having the small-pox are cruising in the Arctic, and it is possible some of them may visit this port, why did they not take such steps as might be necessary to protect us, in case they came here?

Yours, A Tax Payer of Lahaina. [Our correspondent will observe by the notice of the Board of Health, that Collectors are to act as agents of the Board.]

To the Editor of the Advertiser.

Government Reporting. SIR :- During the debate on Saturday last, in the Legislative Assembly, the subject of reporting was under discussion. In reply to a question by the Attorney-General, Mr. Stanley said he could not furnish a report of the debates under $10 per day. The Attorney-General then resumed: "You hear what the clerk says, and there is a man sitting here who has received $10 per day for reporting the " Convention," and now asks the House to give him as much

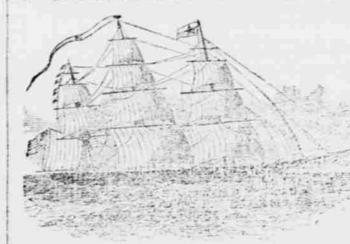

This statement being totally incorrect, the honorable member for Honolulu (Mr. Rhodes) pointed out that such was not the fact, and Mr. Harris corrected his previous statement.

Now, sir, I am the man referred to by the Attorney-General, and as it is just possible that an impression may have been left on the minds of some honorable members, that I have been endeavoring to extract $20 per day out of the treasury, whereas I only want to be paid at the rate of $10, perhaps you will do me the favor to insert this letter.

As a man of some experience on the press, let me say that I consider your offer to throw open your columns for $24 per week, was, in a commercial point of view, a very advantageous one to the govbut from a dollar and cent view the offer was cheap. · I am, sir, your obedient servant,

LIONEL BROWNE. Honelulu, Oct. 27, 1864.

On Thursday the bark Smyrniote, Burdett, arrived, in 14 days passage, bringing San Francisco papers

The news is interesting, but not very important. From the papers received, we glean the following:

From Grant. NEW YORK, Sept. 28 .- The Herald's City Point correspondent of the 26th says Early's defeat in the Valley produces great uneasiness in the army immediately opposite to us, and results of great importance are looked for within a few days. That Lee is getting ready for some new movement is very evident. During the past few nights our troops in front could hear the noise of trains and artillery in motion. Lee, doubtless, is working to aid Early. He stands aghast at the prespect of Sheridan's driving Early beyond the point necessary to hold the Central Road, and the one leading to Lynchburg from Richmond. By contracting his lines around Petersburg, he hopes to be able to detach a force sufficient to reinforce and rally the demoralized army from the Shenandoah.

The Herald's correspondent with the Tenth Corps also says : The movements of the enemy are full of promise. Uneasiness is manifest in all their movements. They are certainly getting ready for a movement of some kind, perhaps to fall back to Swift Creek, the first of their lines of defences, between Petersburg and Richmond. The reason undoubtedly is that Grant is being too strongly reinforced for the rebels to maintain their extended line, now over ten-

Washington, Sept. 30 .- Passengers from City Point state that early on Wednesday night the corps under Gen. Ord began to move from its old position to Jones' Neck, on the James river, where a ponteon bridge had been thrown across the river, and at once began to cross. By twelve the advance succeeded in effecting a crossing in safety, and before daylight the whole corps got over and advanced immediately on the entrenchments on Chapin's Farm, which were carried with but little loss. There appeared to be price is $5, and we will be happy to order for any of | but few rebel troops in the entrenchments, and it is thought they had been withdrawn either to be sent up the Valley, to check Sheridan, or to the Weldon Railroad, fearing a blow from Grant. We have captured from 800 to 400 prisoners, and 15 pieces of artillery. The Eighteenth Corps, under Birney, advanced from Deep Bottom about the same time as Ord, and moved up to the Newmarket Road and carried the entrenchments with ease. The rebels showed but little disposition to contest the ground, and appeared completely surprised. Of the subsequent moves of our forces nothing was known at City Point. There was nothing to indicate that the advance of Ord or Birney had been checked, and it is confidently believed at City Point that the rebels have withdrawn a large number of their troops from the defences of Richmond, and sent them up the Valley to aid Early. This being the case, Ord and Birney can make considerable progress before the rebels can concentrate

On Wednesday night the rebels made a furious attack on our advanced earthworks in front of Fort Sedgwick, on the Jerusalem plank road. These entrenchments were held by a portion of the Second Brigade of the Third Division of the Ninth Corps. The rebels were repulsed with considerable loss.

These are the works we captured from the rebels several weeks ago. This is the second unsuccessful attempt of the rebels to retake them. Fort Sedgwick retreat

WASHINGTON, Sept. 80 .- A dispatch from Grant, dated at 3:30 this P. M., at City Point, states that Warren attacked and carried the enemy's line to-day, on their extreme right, capturing a number of prisoners, and will be immediately prepare i to follow up his success. Meade moved from his left this morning and carried the enemy's line near Poplar Grove church.

A later dispatch, dated five this evening, states that Butler, at three P. M , reported that the enemy made an assault in three columns on his line, near Chapin's farm, and had been repulsed. No report has been received from Meade since he carried the enemy's line near Poplat Grove church.

(Singed) NEW YORK, Oct. 7 .- The Herald's Eighth Corps correspondent says no hostilities were going on in front. The rebel dead from Fort Harrison were still unburied. The rebels fired on our men who went out to bury them. The rebel loss in the assaults of Saturday is admitted to be 400. The Herald's correspondent before Richmond says: "Throughout the past twenty four hours the advance on Richmond from the north side of the James, while it has met with no obstacle, has been facilitated by the demonstrated impossibility of the enemy's attempt to repossess himself of Fort Harrison, the work captured by Butler on the 29th ult, when the enemy was so severely punished and repulsed.

Several shots were exchanged yesterday, but the enemy finally gave up attempting to drive us out." The Herald's Nineteenth Corps correspondent says: "No further moves have taken place along this front. The fire of the sharpshooters has almost ceased. The enemy were busily engaged last night crossing the river. They made considerable noise, but the object in view was not discovered. Deserters have come in who state that almost a panic still reigns in Richmond." The Herald's Tenth Corps special of the 4th, says : We are receiving deserters from the rebel ranks daily, most of them from the local defences of Richmond, many of them being laboring men, glad of the opportunity of escaping. Among the citizens within the present lines of occupation is Mr. Libbey, tacked. owner of Libbey Prison, and Gen. Butler has ordered him to be sent to the rear. New York, Oct. 8 .- The Herald's Fifth Corps correspondent of the 5th says : All is quiet in the vicinity of Poplar Springs Church. This is about four miles this side of the South-side road, and although | the object to prolong until the 15th of December the the road is more strongly threatened than heretofore | armistice which expired Sept. 15th.

from our present position, the enemy still hold the road and use it. The Herald's Tenth Corps correspondent of the 5th says: The situation on the north side of the James remains unchanged. About the usual number of deserters come into our lines daily, giving the usual report of affairs in the beleaguered capital To-day we received tidings that in the excitement of last Thursday the family of Jeff. Davis packed up their small traps and started in haste southward. The Richmond papers give gloomier pictures of the consternation that prevailed there on our approach than any that have been previously received. The universal conscription is inexorable and impartial; even sick and wounded from their military hospitals, if they could walk, were compelled to go. New York, Oct. 7 -- Ewell is said to be in command of the defenses of Richmond, Lee having gone back to Petersburg.

The Richmond papers acknowledge the steady advance of the Union armies on both sides of the > Georgia Said to be Treating for Peace. NEW YORK, Sept. 23 -The Richmond Enquirer, speaking of the rumored peace negotiations between Sherman and the authorities of Georgia, says: The Governor of that State ought to recollect that that State was one of the first to secede from the Union. If she now treats for peace on her own terms, as a sovereign State, she withdraws from the Confederacy and leaves her sister the bull to hold after having got them into the scrape.

> New York, Sept. 27 .- Concerning the reported peace negotiations in Georgia, the Evening Post says? "General Sherman, we are authorized to say, will not negotiate except on terms of unconditional submission of the rebels to the Government of the Union, the fullest acknowledgment of its rights, and the open admission that the war against the Union was what Alex. H. Stephens declared it would be, in 1860, 'plunder and crime.'" The Post says: "If the Georgia authorities will agree to these preliminaries, Gen. Sherman will meet them frankly and cheerfully."

> From Sherman. CHATTANOGGA, Sept. 22 .- Sherman, by special arrangement with Hood, has effected an exchange of two thousand prisoners of both armies.

From the Shenandoah. New York, Sept. 28 .- The Tribune's Harper's Ferry correspondent, of the 27th, says: The completeness of the surprise of the rebels at Fisher's Hill may be imagined from the fact that the guns captured were all loaded to the muzzel with grape and cannister, but Crook's charge was so impetuous and rapid that the rebels did not get time to dischare them. The losses of the rebels in the recent fights, as reported by Government officials sent to ascertain facts, are as follows: Arrived at Harper's Ferry, 288 officers and 3,100 men; wounded at Winhester, 2,200; captured between Fisher's Hill and Woodstock, 2,200; wounded carried off by the rebels, estimated, 1,700; wounded at the roadside houses, estimated, 1,000; killed and wounded by cavalry in Luray's Valley, 250; total, nearly 11,000.

Miscellaneous.

Washington, Sept. 25 .- Late Charleston papers contain advertisements requesting all the male persons in that district, between the ages of the sixteen and fife, to report for enrollment. The order extends throughout the South, the object being to ascertain the present and prospective military strength of the Confederacy. In several of the military Districts, slaveholders are required, forthwith, to furnish onefourth, and in some cases, one half of their slaves, to work on the fortifications.

New York, Sept. 30 .- General Banks and staff arrived from New Orleans this morning. Late Southern papers contain the following: The Macon Confederate, commenting on the propositions for peace tendered by Gen. Sherman, say that Governor Brown replied that their negotiations could lead to no practicable results, as Sherman was only a General of one of the Federal armies, and he was Governor of only one of the Confederate States. A correspondent says Hood is in cheerful spirits, and before many months the Federals will hear of him through quite a novel and unexpected channel. The Montgomery Advertiser says Magruder has gone into Arkansas with a very heavy force.

Jeff. Davis, on his way to Georgia, made a speech at Salisbury, North Carolina, and said that though reverses had befallen them, the spirit of the Confederacy was unbroken, and would yet bring peace and independence from the hated foe. He called on all to enter the army, and urged the women to marry no man who shirked the duties of a soldier. The Macon Telegraph says refugees report Sherman's army going North by thousands. His force is now very small. Whether these men are going out of the service, or reinforcing Grant, they are unable RUMORS OF PEACE .- The World's special correspondent believes the report of a peace letter from Jeff. Davis is well founded. The rebel loan declined three per cent. The rumor of an approaching interview between the French, Russian and Prussian Sovereigns, is considered unfounded in Paris.

The Intelligencer says: It seems certain that arrangements have been made between France and Italy for the solution of the Roman question. The Czar of Russia was to visit the Emperor of the French at Swalbach on the 21st. A new Spanish Ministry had been formed, who announced a conciliatory policy. The Turin journals discuss the question of the removal of the Italian capital to Florence. The Opinione says: If the removal is necessary to advance the solution of the Roman question, the Government cannot refuse.

The Globe says the French Government papers consider the prospects of McClellan for the Presidency as secure in the future.

The London News says: "There can be no cordiality in the relations betweens the United States and France, if McClellan is elected to the Presidency, he being known as a strong anti-Imperialist."

The London Herald, alluding to the coming Presidential election, says : " We believe all negotiations must fail, as all force has failed. We believe separation to be just and wise, and that it has become inevitable all will admit. If reunion were possible, the Democratic plan offers the only chance or hope for its accomplishment."

The London Times lectures Australians who talk of separating from England, and says their charges are that England has not been allowed to indulge her taste for military glory. The Times procedes to show Australians that had England gone to war with Russia, on account of Poland, trouble and disaster might have fallen upon them. Russia, expecting an outbreak, had instructed her Admirals on the Atlantic and Pacific, to leave their respective posts, by different routes, for a common rendezvous, ascertained to be mid-ocean. The fleet thus assembled was to hold itself in readiness and bear down on the Australian Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off.
